Winter Survival Weekend Packing List

When you are packing, keep in mind that you will be carrying this for a small hike of up to a mile. Make sure that you can carry everything you bring on your back. Avoid the temptation to over-pack.

DO NOT BRING COTTON CLOTHING OF ANY KIND! Use Synthetics or Wool wherever possible. Cotton blends are better than cotton, but still not great. Cotton holds water and will cause you to get cold and freeze much faster.

What you will need:

72 Hour pack
- 24 Hour pack
- Sleeping bag (rated for below 0 temps at minimum)
- Shelter building supplies (tarp, space blanket, etc…)
- Sleeping mat
- Food for the weekend (Fires will be available for cooking)
- Toiletries
- Any thing else you need to survive the weekend.

24 Hour pack
